BAR NO. 7080

Supreme Court No.
201,390-2

ORDER
PURSUANT TO ELC 9.2

RECEIVED
JUL 08 2015

By order of the Supreme Court of the State of California, filed September 4, 2014, Frank Benjamin Inglis was suspended from the practice of law for two years; execution of that suspension was stayed and Frank Benjamin Inglis was placed on probation for three years with a period of actual suspension of at least two years and other probationary conditions. This discipline was based on Frank Benjamin Inglis's failure to comply with the conditions of a prior reproof and prior probation. ELC 9.2(e) provides that a final adjudication of lawyer misconduct in another jurisdiction conclusively establishes the misconduct for purposes of a disciplinary proceeding in this state. Upon notification of the action of the Supreme Court of the State of California, this Court issued an order, pursuant to ELC 9.2(c), directing Frank Benjamin Inglis to inform this court of any claim that the imposition of identical discipline in the state would be unwarranted. Frank Benjamin Inglis did not file a response. The Court having reviewed the file in this matter has determined unanimously that the following order should be entered. Now, therefore, it is hereby

ORDERED:

The Washington State Supreme Court does hereby reciprocate discipline in the State of Washington and orders that Frank Benjamin Inglis is suspended from the practice of law for at least two years and other probationary conditions. Pursuant to ELC 13.2 the effective date of suspension is seven days from the date of this order.

DATED at Olympia, Washington this 8th day of July, 2015.
