By order of the Oregon Supreme Court dated November 6, 2014, Eric Carl Einhorn was suspended from the practice of law in Oregon for one year based on failure to provide competent representation, multiple conflicts of interest, neglect of legal matters, failure to communicate with clients, failure to account for and deliver the property of another in the lawyer's possession, and failure to respond to disciplinary authorities.. ELC 9.2(e) provides that a final adjudication of lawyer misconduct in another jurisdiction conclusively establishes the misconduct for purposes of a disciplinary proceeding in this state. Upon notification of the action of the Supreme Court of the State of Oregon, this court issued an order, pursuant to ELC 9.2(c), directing Eric Carl Einhorn to inform this court of any claim that the imposition of identical discipline in the state would be unwarranted. Eric Carl Einhorn did not file a response. The court has reviewed the file in this matter has determined unanimously that the following order should be entered. Now, therefore, it is hereby

ORDERED:

The Washington State Supreme Court does hereby reciprocate discipline in the State of Washington and orders that Eric Carl Einhorn is suspended from the practice of law for one year. Pursuant to ELC 13.2, the effective date of suspension is seven days from the date of this order.

DATED at Olympia, Washington this 10th day of March, 2015.
