CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

By order of Washington Supreme Court Order No. 25700-B-609, I certify that I caused a copy of the Order on Stipulation to Reprimand to be emailed to the Office of Disciplinary Counsel and to Respondent's Counsel Anne I. Seidel, at anne@anneseidel.com, on the 12th day of November, 2020.

Clerk to the Disciplinary Board

Seattle, WA 98101-2539 (206) 727-8207

1	entering into the following stipulation to facts, misconduct and sanction to avoid the risk, time
2	and expense attendant to further proceedings.
3	I. ADMISSION TO PRACTICE
4	1. Respondent was admitted to practice law in the State of Washington on November 10,
5	1993.
6	II. STIPULATED FACTS
7	2. At all relevant times, Respondent managed Rubinstein Law Office, a firm that
8	primarily handled personal injury matters.
9	3. Respondent maintained an Interest on Lawyer's Trust Account, ending in 6522, at Key
10	Bank for the deposit of client funds (Key Bank trust account).
11	4. Respondent was the only authorized signer on the Key Bank trust account, and the
12	only lawyer responsible for trust account transactions and recordkeeping.
13	Trust Account Overdrafts
14	5. In December 2016, Key Bank closed Respondent's trust account.
15	6. At the time the trust account was closed, there were outstanding (uncashed) checks
16	drawn on the account. When some of the outstanding checks were presented for payment, Key
17	Bank issued overdraft notices.
18	7. In December 2016, Respondent opened a trust account, ending in 2337, at Columbia
19	Bank for the deposit of client funds (first Columbia Bank trust account).
20	8. Respondent deposited $921,675.51 from the closed Key Bank trust account into the
21	first Columbia Bank trust account.
22	9. In August 2017, Respondent opened another trust account, ending in 6330, at
23	Columbia Bank, for the deposit of new client funds (second Columbia Bank trust account).
24	Stipulation to Discipline OFFICE OF DISCIPLINARY COUNSEL OF THE Page 2 WASHINGTON STATE BAR ASSOCIATION

1	Trust Account Records
2	10. During the period July 2001 through December 2016, Respondent maintained a trust
3	account check register and client ledgers in QuickBooks (trust account records).
4	11. Respondent personally entered most of the deposits and disbursements into the trust
5	account records.
6	12. During part or all of the period July 2001 through December 2016, Respondent did
7	not maintain a complete or accurate check register for the Key Bank trust account to the extent
8	detailed in paragraphs 14, 15, and 16, infra.
9	13. During part or all of the period July 2001 through December 2016, Respondent did
10	not maintain complete or accurate client ledgers.
11	14. During part or all of the period July 2001 through December 2016, Respondent failed
12	to enter correct information for some deposits.
13	15. Between October 2010 and July 2015, Respondent failed to enter approximately 68
14	trust account checks totaling more than $180,000 into the trust account records. All of these
15	checks cleared the bank. In some, but not all instances, Respondent's bookkeeper entered general
16	journal entries (GJE) to cover the checks. A GJE is a bookkeeping entry that is not the same as
17	entering an actual transaction.
18	16. From August 2001 through August 2014, Respondent disbursed more than nineteen
19	million dollars from the Key Bank trust account to himself for earned fees, but did not identify
20	the client matter(s) for which the funds were disbursed. The funds were disbursed by bank
21	transfer to Respondent's general account, usually in round amounts ranging from $5,000 to
22	$600,000. Respondent states that he did not know he was required to identify a client matter
23	when disbursing funds from the trust account to himself.

1	17. During the period July 2001 through August 2014, Respondent did not reconcile his
2	trust account check register to the bank statements (bank statement reconciliation).
3	18. Respondent arranged for a bookkeeper to start performing bank statement
4	reconciliations for the Key Bank trust account in September 2014.
5	19. During the period July 2001 through December 2016, Respondent did not reconcile
6	his trust account check register to the client ledgers (client ledger reconciliation).
7	20. Due to Respondent's inadequate recordkeeping, Respondent was unable to identify
8	the ownership of $160,937.44 that he was holding in the first Columbia Bank trust account.
9	Disbursing More Funds Than Clients Had on Deposit
10	21. As of December 31, 2016, Respondent had negative client ledgers totaling more than
11	<$108,000>. In some instances, the ledgers were negative because Respondent disbursed more
12	funds than the clients had on deposit in his trust account. In other instances, the ledgers may have
13	been inaccurate.
14	Delivery of Funds to Clients and Third Persons Entitled to Receive Them
15	22. As of November 30, 2016, Respondent's records showed that he had approximately
16	100 outstanding trust account checks, totaling more than $160,000, that were dated from
17	November 2010 through January 2016. The checks were payable to clients, health care providers,
18	and insurance companies, among others.
19	23. After Key Bank closed Respondent's trust account and issued overdraft notices,
20	Respondent issued new checks to replace the outstanding checks written on his Key Bank trust
21	account. In 67 instances, Respondent delayed issuing replacement checks until May 2017. For
22	example:
23	a. In May 2017, Respondent issued a check in the amount of $5,011.25 to Rainier Chiro

2		2013. Although Respondent's records show that he prepared a check to Rainier Chiro
3		in February 2013, Rainier Chiro maintains that it did not receive the check.
4	b.	In May 2017, Respondent issued a check to Kent Chiro & Massage (Kent Chiro) in
5		the amount of $5,000 for funds that Kent Chiro was entitled to receive in May 2013.
6		Although Respondent's records show that he prepared a check to Kent Chiro in May
7		2013, Kent Chiro maintains that it did not receive the check.
8	c.	In May 2017, Respondent issued a check to client JS in the amount of $789.21 for
9		funds that JS was entitled to receive in October 2014. Although Respondent issued a
10		check in the amount of $789.21 to the Department of Labor and Industries (L&I) for
11		JS in October 2014, L&I promptly informed Respondent's office that it was not
12		entitled to the funds and did not cash the check.
13	d.	In May 2017, Respondent issued a check to GEICO in the amount of $5,500 for funds
14		that GEICO was entitled to receive in January 2016. Although Respondent's records
15		show that he prepared a check to GEICO in January 2016, GEICO maintains that it
16		did not receive the check.
17	Failure to	Deposit Client Funds into a Trust Account
18	24	. On May 12, 2015, Respondent deposited $41,955.53 into his general account, when
19	the funds	should have been deposited into his trust account. Although the incorrect deposit may
20	have been	due to bank error, Respondent did not deposit the $41,955.53 into a trust account until
21	February 3	3, 2017.
22	25	Respondent states that he did not realize the deposit mistake because he did not
23	understand the bank statement reconciliations prepared by his bookkeeper.
