BAR NO. 31172

Supreme Court No.

RECEIVED

ORDER
PURSUANT TO ELC 9.2

By order of the Supreme Court of the State of Tennessee, filed April 1, 2015 and effective April 11, 2015, Joseph P. Calandriello was suspended from the practice of law for three years, with 11 months and 29 days of active suspension and the remainder to be spent on probation. The discipline was based on four complaints; one involved an arrest for possession of controlled substances and three involved his abandonment of practice and failure to communicate with client. Joseph P. Calandriello entered into a Conditional Guilty Plea admitting to the misconduct. ELC 9.2(e) provides that a final adjudication of lawyer misconduct in another jurisdiction conclusively establishes the misconduct for purposes of a disciplinary proceeding in this state. Upon notification of the action of the Supreme Court of the State of Tennessee, this Court issued an order, pursuant to ELC 9.2(c), directing Joseph P. Calandriello to inform this Court of any claim that the imposition of identical discipline in the state would be unwarranted. Joseph P. Calandriello did not file a response. The Court having reviewed the file in this matter has determined unanimously that the following order should be entered. Now, therefore, it is hereby

ORDERED:

The Washington State Supreme Court does hereby reciprocate discipline in the State of Washington and orders that Joseph P. Calandriello is suspended from the practice of law for three years, with 11 months and 29 days of active suspension and the remainder to be spent on probation. Pursuant to ELC 13.2, the effective date of suspension is seven days from date of this order.

DATED at Olympia, Washington this 16th day of July, 2015.
